8 ARTURO TORRES OCHOA,

10 Plaintiff,

vs.

11 M. FERRI, et al.,

12 Defendants.

3:13-cv-00650-RCJ-VPC

15 This prison civil rights action comes before the Court on plaintiff's application to 16 proceed in forma pauperis (#1) seeking to initiate a civil rights action.

17 The pauper application is incomplete. Both a financial certificate properly completed
18 and executed by an authorized institutional officer and a statement of the plaintiff's inmate
19 trust fund account for the past six months are required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2) and Local 20 Rule LSR1-2. Plaintiff, a frequent filer who repeatedly has been informed of these 21 requirements, attached neither.¹

22 It does not appear from review of the allegations presented that a dismissal without 23 prejudice of the present improperly-commenced action would lead to a promptly-filed new 24 action being untimely or otherwise result in substantial prejudice.

25
27 ¹Moreover, neither the pauper application nor the complaint are signed. However, the Court's 28 dismissal without prejudice instead is based upon the pauper application not being properly completed with all required attachments.

1 The Court notes in this regard that plaintiff has filed numerous meritless, frivolous
2 and/or delusional actions in this district. As a result, the Court has found plaintiff subject to
3 the “three strikes” provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) in 3:10-cv-00483-ECR-VPC (#7). Under 4 § 1915(g), a prisoner who has brought three or more frivolous or meritless actions may not
5 proceed in forma pauperis; and he instead must pay the full filing fee in advance, unless he 6 is under imminent danger of serious physical injury.

7 Plaintiff alleges in the present complaint, inter alia, that his food is being poisoned.
8 This allegation of imminent danger, however, is delusional or frivolous. Plaintiff has made the 9 same allegation in a number of actions. See, e.g., 3:12-cv-00285-MMD-VPC; 3:12-cv-00276-
10 HDM-VPC; 3:12-cv-00239-RCJ-VPC. The Court held a hearing on the allegation in 3:12-cv-
11 00239-RCJ-VPC and confirmed that the allegation indeed is wholly baseless.

Plaintiff accordingly will sustain no substantial prejudice from the dismissal of this improperly commenced action without prejudice to the filing of a properly commenced action.

IT THEREFORE IS ORDERED that the application to proceed in forma pauperis (#1) is DENIED and that this action shall be DISMISSED without prejudice to the filing of a new complaint on the required form in a new action together with either a new pauper application with all required, and new, attachments or payment of the filing fee.

18 The Clerk of Court shall SEND plaintiff a copy of the papers that he filed along with the 19 complaint and pauper forms and instructions for both forms.

20 The Clerk shall enter final judgment accordingly, dismissing this action without 21 prejudice.

Dated this 4th day of December, 2013.
